

Bayonne Board Of Education
Welcomes New Trustee, Vincent A. Virga

Mayor Mark A. Smith announced that he has named Vincent A. Virga as a new trustee to the Bayonne Board of Education. He will replace Marie Stringile, Ph.D.

Vincent Virga attended California State University Long Beach/Dominguez Hills as well as Fairleigh Dickinson University. He has both a New York and New Jersey State Life and Health Insurance License and a Series 7/ General Securities License.

Vincent Virga is President of PFS-Partnership Financial Services, Bayonne New Jersey. He was an Investment Officer for Pamrapo Financial Center in Bayonne, New Jersey, Vice-President of Mizuho Corporate Bank, New York, and an Assistant Fed Funds Trader for Industrial Bank of Japan Ltd. in New York. Mr. Virga also was the owner/operator of The Green Cow Eatery and Catering Co., Jersey City, N.J. He is a member of The National Ethics Bureau, a trustee of the Bayonne Chamber of Commerce, and treasurer of the Bayonne Rotary Club. He also is an approved provider of 403(b) retirement products and services.

Dr. Patricia L. McGeehan, Superintendent of Schools, adds, “I welcome and thank our new board trustee, Vincent A. Virga, for volunteering his time and for his dedication and expertise to the students, staff, parents and the entire community of Bayonne.”